So here we are, senior year, and all we can think about is how fast it all flew by. Our heads are spinning with thoughts of the past and future. We definitley had some great times in high school and we now await what the future holds for each of us. As the final bell rings at 2:14, we savor the last moments at Masco as we walk through the doors to the parking lot. We are all ecstatic to be out, but at the same time it's sad to know that the time has come to say goodbye to our high school years -- those years that have shaped us into who we are. It's time to move on...but the experiences we've had here will remain in our minds. Hold on to those memories forever. After four years of waiting for this very instant, we realize just how fast Time Flew.

Thanks to everyone who helped make four years in Masco a whole lot more bearable and fun. Matt, Pete, Brian, Joon, Abbey, Jacky, Tom, Brad, Scott and Chris H- I owe you guys four years of my life. Thanks for being around through everything. Chris S, Dave, Ross, Dano, and Bobby - thanks for always being there to brighten up a normally dull day. Thanks also to all the countless juniors and sophmores who have made drama, chorus and life a whole lot more interesting the past three years(especially Nessie and Mikki - go NO cast!!!!) Thanks to my good friend and teacher, Mr. Ocock, who's helped me through four years of Masco. Thanks to those who came before(Brendan, Amanda, Ben), those who will follow, and those who will leave with me. To refrain from leaving anyone out, I'm just gonna say in general "be good" to anyone I know. Now, it's off to the Navy where I am going to specialize in Row boat training. Don't worry, it's an inside joke, And also Ted Williams is so much better than Ty Cobb. And Yankees will lose. I am officially predicting it. That is all and thanks to everyone for a cool four years. See you all later.

Jennifer A. Brickett

Mom and Dad-you have filled me inspiration and ambition all through high school. You have provided the support and comfort which I have so often needed. Thanks for always being there when I've needed you. Without you I would never be the same person. Daniela- You have taught me many valuable lessons over the years. You have supported me and helped me through hard times. Let people see who you really are. Never hold back. Heather- Whenever I see you I always feel a little happier. Your cheerfulness and optimistic attitude has made high school happier. We made it through without a single fight! I'll miss hearing your funny stories in homeroom. Kate- We've had our peaks and slumps. I'll always remember the good times that we shared. Stay positive and you'll see all your great qualities. Sarah- You have provided me with endless humor and support. What would I have done without your helpful suggestions about every topic imaginable. Adrienne- I have so much fun with you because we are so much alike. I always know who to go to when something is bothering me. You understand all the little inconveniences in my life. Jack- You've have challenged the way I think and lead my life. Thanks for supporting me and making each day happier. Thanks to my coaches and all the people I have swum with over the years. These past four years have been fun. Some times have been a challenge, and only a few times too hard to enjoy. But Homer Simpson did put it quite well when he said "Well everything looks bad if you remember it". To all those who have been there w/ me, you all know what I am talking about. For my first recognition, I would like to give my greatest thanks to my parents. For all the years you have put your own time into helping me out with my school work. I couldn't have done it without either of you and I would like for you to know how much your help has meant to me; every bit of it. To my two older brothers, Nate and Matt: we have been through some tough times, and yet we've always stuck together. Thanks for the support. And to my friends: Matt I. I have known you for a long time. It has been real. Drew H. It has been real fun with you throughout high school. Mike V. Keep it up with hockey. At least I know someone who knows what a real sport is. Andreas. Things seem to get more interesting as the years go on. Sam. You are one strange yet funny person. Be careful w/ that car of yours. Steve K. These have been some crazy years w/ you. Jason. You are a great friend and we'll always be friends. And to the teachers and those in L.S.L. who have inspired me and helped me out. Thanks. "Zeppelin rules!!!"-Otto.

First and foremost, I would like to thank God and my family for helping me through so much over the past few years; I don't know what I would have done without you. Also my friends, you have all had such a profound impact on my life, I thank you for that. Chris-Dude what can I say? Who else would put random couches in my yard, break their finger playing spoons, the list goes on, we had some fun huh? Katie-I love you more than anyone could ever know, you have given me things that I treasure more than life itself, we had our ups and downs but we made it! Max-Keep it real dog. When you get famous, don't forget about me man, Woodfellas! You know you and me ride till death! To my family, there are no words to describe my gratitude, I love you. If I forgot anyone, that doesn't mean I don't love, respect, and thank you wholeheartedly. "Huh...huh. Uh...I got one. Like if you go to school and like study and stuff... and grow up and get a job at a company and like get promoted, you have to go there and do stuff that sucks for the rest of your life But if you act cool like us and just do stuff that's cool... Like sit around and watch T.V. and burn stuff uh... that would be cool" - Beavis and Butthead

"Here's what I mean by building your own little subculture. I don't mean you disregard every rule of your community. I don't go around naked, for example. I don't run through red lights. The little things you can obey. But the big things- how we think, what we value-those you must choose yourself. You can't let anyone- or any society- determine those for you." - Morrie

Oh, what a travesty!! My career as a Masco student is finally over.
After 4 years of blessing Masco with my presence and proving beyond a shadow of a doubt that I am the best there is, the best there was, and the best there ever will be - it all comes to an end. At least the Masco part of it, that is. With or without Masco, I'll always be the best there is, the best there was, and the best there ever will be! Without Masco, I don't think my life can go on anymore. Yeah, right. I'm glad it's over. You know why? Because now it's off to college!! You might be reading this twenty years from now, trying to allow your memories of Masco to resurface. Well, don't bother reading this square to remember me. All you need to do is put your yearbook down and look at your newspaper or turn the TV on. You see that man on the front page of the paper, on all the television stations, the one with all the power, with all the expensive cars, women all around him, the richest man in the world, the one with all the stroke around this place, the great one? Look familiar to you? No, you're eyes aren't fooling you. That's me alright. What else would you expect? After four years, the time has finally come for me to leave Masco and layeth the smacketh down on the rest of the world!! If you smell what I'm cookin!!

SOME FINAL WORDS...

Robert J. Edwards

Yup. They were right. These four years did go by fast, I guess. Hello to Jason (starnation) & Jason (someday you'll own a software company), Jeremy (you're completely insane--no offense), Pat, Corrie, Alicia, Kristen, Mike C.(the english presentations always seemed to turn out well in the end), Loretta (you're almost done, hang in there!), Mike R., Dave D.(the most motivated person I know), Nathaniel, Adam, anybody else I missed. Also Thanks to Mr. Brazier, Ms. Cassidy, Frau Skudra, Mr. Lima, Mr. Miele, Ms. Stanley, Mrs. Stoehr, and Mr. Brown. Ms. Fiocchi-Marden, thanks for all your help. Hopefully this typeface won't look too dated in the future, but it probably will. Well, that's it. On to more school. Just what I need.

We are the music-makers,
And we are the dreamers of dreams
Wandering by lone sea breakers
And sitting by desolate streams;

On whom the pale moon gleams
Yet we are the movers and shakers
Of the world forever, it seems.

Time sifts our friendships and our friends,
For time alone can be the test.
And with the passing of the years,
We lose the false and keep the best.
And when, beyond the distant hills,
The golden sun of life descends-
We find God's greatest gift has been
The love of true and faithful friends

One day a man was walking along the seashore. He noticed that during the night many seashells and starfish had washed upon the shore. Thoroughly enjoying the morning sun and cool sea air, the man strolled for miles along the sand. Far off in the distance, he saw a small figure dancing. The man was joyous that someone was celebrating life in such a grand and uninhibited manner. As he drew closer, however, it became apparent that perhaps the figure was not dancing, but rather repeatedly performing some ritual. Approaching the small figure, the man noticed that it was a child. The girl was methodically picking up starfish from the shore and tossing them back into the surf. The man paused for a moment, puzzled, then asked, "Why are you throwing those starfish?" "If I leave these starfish on the beach," she replied, "the sun will dry them and they will die. So I'm throwing them back into the ocean because I want them to live." The man reflected for a moment, impressed with the child's thoughtfulness. Then he motioned up and down the miles of beach and said, "There must be millions of starfish along here! How can you possibly expect to make a difference?" The young girl pondered the man's word for a moment, then she slowly leaned over, reached down, and carefully picked up another starfish from the sand. Pulling back, she arched the starfish gently into the surf. She turned to the man and smiled. "You may be right," she said, "but I made a difference for that one!"

Masco has been really good to me. I've met people I wouldn't have under normal circumstances. I owe a lot to the A Better Chance program; I wouldn't be here w/o it. To all my RD's: L&L; T&C; and now Chris, Thank you. Mastah trinh, you can cook. To all the ABC peeps I ever lived with, it's been fun. Yo "T", we made it!! Through the best and worst, we made it. The kehoe's, my beloved host family, thank you for taking me in. I feel like a part of the family. Jenny, you're awesome and we will always be procrastinators and bs'ers for life =) To my latinas: Alejandra, Vilma, y Arivee te amo con mucho cariño. A thank you to all the teachers I ever had, in particular Meegan and Martinez, I enjoyed being a student of yours. To my parents: I knew exactly what I had to do 4 years ago in order to succeed, even if it meant leaving you. But I'm glad you raised me to be independent and have an understanding that you will always love me. I will leave Masco ready to take on the world. And I thank everyone that I know for making that possible.
Special mentions: ShawnF, ChrisK, JohnC, Reeces, Leah, Hbennett, Makala, Betsy, Martha, J.Boobs, TomH, and to many more, I will miss you all.

Lets start this off by saying thanks to everyone who has helped me through my tricky year's at school. I gotta give a loving thanks to my parents and my grandmother for helping through the years and I gotta thank the teachers and friends who have helped r too. Now to get to the serious stuff, JL AUDIO kills the competition and theres nothir like a good car stereo. To all my friends, we've had fun during the years, whether it wa hangin out or gettin into trouble or gettin out of trouble. The fun isin't gonna stop now Anytime we want to cruise around we will. The best things to be remembered are all tl friends I have and all the stuff we have done (dirt biking, 4 wheeling, partying and cruisin). Lets keep it this way for ever.

It's finally coming to an end, and there are so many thank you's owed to so many people. I have truly learned what true friends are. Amy, Christine, Josh, you guys have been there through thick and thin, you've leant me a shoulder and ear more times than I can even count. Thank you. You've left a lasting imprint on my heart. To JD, AS, AG, Scotty, LB, Jamsey, NS & LS, we've had some great times, and our share of moments sticking it through. To Mr. Meinelt, Ms. Lund, and Ms. Due, you have been my inspiration, always pushing me through, thank you for helping me become who I am. Heather, we have been through it all together, and you've helped me so much, thank you. Don, you're the best brother I could ever ask for, I'm so grateful to have you in our family. Mom and Dad, you have taught me to respect myself, strive for my goals, never give up, and to push forward always, and never let a minor set back ruin it all. Thank you both for being so supportive. I love everyone that I have mentioned with all my heart. I wish the Class of 2001 the best of luck in the future, and I hope that you have all learned as much as I have. It's been a long hard road; there have been sink holes and mountains but WE MADE IT!!!!! Love you all ~ Forever yours ~ Holly LeBlanc

You know a dream is like a river, Ever changing as it flows, And a dreamer's just a vessel, That must follow where it goes, Trying to learn from what's behind you, And never knowing what's in store, Makes each day a constant battle, Just to stay between the shores Too many times we stand aside, And let the waters slip away, 'Til what we put off 'til tomorrow, Has now become today, So don't you sit upon the shoreline, And say your satisfied, Choose to chance the rapids, And dare to dance the tide I will sail my vessel, 'Til the river runs dry, Like a bird upon the wind, These waters are my sky, I'll never reach my destination, If I never try, So I will sail my vessel, 'Til the river runs dry-GB

Through gypsy camps and swirling Arab fairs, And moonlit woods where unicorns run free.

But this bridge will only take you halfway there— The last few steps you'll have to take alone."

Four years! Man it flies by. I've changed so much and it's due to all of you!! To all those who helped me out during my struggle through Masco: For everyone in my homeroom, grade, and even school, you've all had some impact on me and you all deserve a big thank you, And to all Srs: good luck in whatever you're heading into. Mike - thank you. For rides, advice, criticism, support, and most importantly, going above and beyond being a brother, but being a friend, no matter how hard I made it for you. I've "had to deal with you" for 17+ years, and now I wish it were more. Mom & Dad thanks fo driving me to do better, encouraging me in new things, and bringing so many opportunities into my life Sue, Lisa, Col, Meg, and Mary - thanks for always giving me advice and support, I hope you all know how much impact you each have on me. I take everything you say under very serious consideration, though it may not show. That's not it!!! See the rest of my square at "http://jump.to/senior-square"

This is where our paths may part

Mom and Dad thanx for putting up with me. You both are the most impotant people in my life. Thanx for believing in me, and showing me the right road to follow. I will always love you both very much. Thanx again 4-everything. To all my teachers thanx 4 everything. You helped me get through these 4 years of highschool, and I learned a lot a long the way. These 4 years have gone by so quickley, but I won't forget one second of it.

A few years ago I would have never imagined myself saying this but I'm really gonna miss Masc The late night HMUN Bond games with the delegates. "What'da ya want on it??" I wish I h started XC earlier. I never thought running could be so fun. Could they have picked a better 10th grade science class? Everyone at the lunch table. I've learned so much about myself here. I think the most important thing I've learned can be summed up best by Robert Frost: "In three words can sum up everything I know about life: it goes on". We all get down on ourselves but just remember that for every bad thing that happens, there is a good thing waiting around the corner. Alyssa, what can I say? You're a true friend, you always are there to listen to my complaints and you always give me the truth whether or not I want to hear it. I owe all my succes to my mom; you never let me slack and you always sacrificed for me. I love you Mom, Dad, John and Erika. If there is one person who has given me more happiness than anyone el it's Jen, you showed me what perfect could be. I love you and I always will.

~To everyone else who has made a difference, I have not and will not forg you. You have made these four years an experience I don't want to forget, Tha you for everything. ~_"Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened."

I'd like to thank all my friends from Middleton for being the when I needed them. Thanks also to Mark, Jim & Aaron. To the Masco staff; in ten years I hope to be swinging a golden cane and tossing my money around to those less fortunate. It's nice to know that, as a taxpayer, you will all be working for me the future.

Sean Mullarkey

Although I've always been one of the most quiet ones in this class, my close friends know my spirit's been one of the noisiest. Enjoy your senior year Nestley, and to Dave, (commonly known in Masco as X~dice,) I'll always love you ☺. Lastly I have to thank Mark Verry, I couldn't have graduated w/o your help. Smooches to everyone! {8^*

I don't what to say. Its two in the morning, the day after these are due (typical of my masco career) and I can't think of how to sum up four years of my life. So if anyone reading this expects something poetic or even semi-intelligent, prepare to be disappointed. I can't say I loved either Masco or the tri-town but there were some incredible people here, both students and teachers. I would write about all the friends and teachers I've met but there isn't enough room and I'd feel crappy leaving out someone out by mistake. If you were one of those people I just hope I let you know how I felt, and if you're taking the time to read this then you're probably one of the good ones.
Hope I see you later.
I wish peace, happiness and other such things.

It feels like I just went outside for recess. I was waiting for a whistle that wouldn't blow, and when a faint soun finally came, it was Pomp and Circumstance, and I thre my cap, and it was time to go inside. Time to say a warr goodbye. Thank you all for these years together. On to other places, other games to play. Peace out...

Though the thank you portion of "the square" is a cliché, bear with me – it's deserved. Thank you to my parents for their unconditional class and love; Seth for letting me look up to him; Anna for her teachings; TITO for countless ways of inspiration; Paul for his compassion; Catalina for being there (No one has to know you like it); Ryan for all his thoughtfulness and care (you geek burger); Cade for a lifetime of laughter, booty, and potato salad; Danielle for the decade, missing the milk, and the "numa rumba" (aah!); BMT; Moose and Mr. Casey; XC; Jaina (squeak!); Joanie for her understanding and brilliance; and Lisa (singing in my bathtub and tech class). When we were thrown together in seventh grade, I made some unexpected friendships that have lasted throughout these six years. Even if you haven't been apart of those friendships, I will look back on you with a certain fondness.

School was fun while it lasted, but I'm happy that it will soon come to an end. Thanks to my family for all the help since I first started school, I would not have made it with out you. Also, thanks to my friends for many years of funny memories. Paul - we've been doing stupid things for amusement since 6th grade, lets keep it that way, and we all know you hate "it". Pete - one day you and your cousins will make the best damn ski videos anyone has ever seen. Nick - you are the biggest redneck I have ever met and the Malibu is the ultimate off road machine, not your truck. Shawn - you are the only person I know that has a pussyfoot and none of us stole any of your towels during the summer. All the friends I didn't mention, thank you. I'm looking forward to many more years of ragging on each other and making more dumb memories. Well, there's my four years summed up into one little box. Good luck to the rest of the class of 2001

The things I really learned at Masco:

Mr. Brown always hated looking for the pony, Abercrombie Apparently isn't a religion, Kevin likes lemonade (G.L.), Becky D.N.((J/K), The student council executive board really does do everything, Study groups are more a way of life than a learning tool – Betsy, Señc Pierce really loves his "Nonna", The leg will never be removed from the tree in the front circle, "Just wait for the new building" (the Culve Friends definitely come before school, Mrs. Rasner will never get any taller, and last, but not least, Masco will never blow up, be it by gas leak or an actual bomb.

I would like to thank some of my friends, Dave N., Matt H., Pete D., Chris S., Chris H. Brian S.; you guys are as interesting as they come – thanks for the good times.

Dad and Mom, thanks for the tough love. Oh, and Mom... thanks for being relentless. Mrs. Rasner, I have to thank you too - for whipping my ass into shape.

Nicole, "you make me want to be a better man". You fueled my ambition, my drive, and my passion. You are my first love – thank you for that.

Heather, thanks for being there and for always making me feel good about myself. Hey Duck... you're a duck. Rachel, it was... umm... "unique". Keep on keeping on.

And remember: One on tip-toe cannot stand. One astride cannot walk. One who displays himself does not shine. One who justifies himself has no glory. One who boasts his own success will not endure. Be real, be humble, be true.

Open your arms to change,
but please don't lose yourself...
A friendly atmosphere has made you who you are to be.
Your character is in charge and will control your destiny.
You'll go someplace you've never gone, you'll make your mark again,
you will reset your standards,
and sure will make new friends.
As soon as today is yesterday you're heart will always give.
I hope you won't regret today cause your future longs to live.
If our paths don't cross again,
I won't forget this day cause I'm afraid of change,
I'm scared to shift my ways.
My eyes will see things they've never seen, but I've always been here.
The time that counts your memories go will teach me not to fear.
You'll look upon your life and see familiar grounds.
You'll hear the call of memories and recognize the sound.
All the lives you change will make stars disappear.
And as you're settled down, you'll realize you've never left here.

As we flip through the pages in the book of life, the story continues to unfold. There are many different chapters filled with faculty members and friends, and each one holds a new lesson to be learned and memories to be treasured. As we travel through the many chapters of our highschool careers, we begin to realize how fast the time flies. For the seniors, the class of 2001, the time has certainly flown. Although the memories a

GIRLS SKIING

They are the skiers of Bradford Hill, They go really fast because they've got the skill. In brightly colored spandex suits, they strap on their helmets and their boots, in their new red bibs they really shine, and when it comes to being fine they are first in line. They were on T.V and in a magazine. That is why they are Masco's most famous team.

GOLF

The golf team had a fairly successful 2000 fall season. Although they finished .500 for the season, they qualified for the state tournament. They finished 7-7-1 and got off to a strong start with wins right off the bat. As the season approached the end, they played some of the league's tougher teams. They still played strong even with the loss of a couple of players. In the state tournament, Mike Fee qualified for individuals in the state finals. Yes, we do have a volleyball team, no matter what anyone says, and none of them will ever forget it. Hard to believe what an incredible season they had, conquering Leanne's smelly bag, their favorite ref Dave, and home work without breaking a sweat. They even made it to the tourney, 14-6, but only the first round because the Butt Sweat in Lexington turned their bus back around. They shared many laughs, a couple tears too, but there was nothing their beautiful captains couldn't do.

GIRLS SOCCER

Although this season we had a rough start, we knew we'd succeed, cause we played with pure heart. Many fans lost faith, and we put up with a lot. But look what we did, who would have thought? These 26 girls defined the word "team". And looking back on the season, it seems like a dream. We stayed out of trouble, but still had our fun. Hey Geibs, who's got shotgun? Mac can be sexy, the bridge was the best. As for the Pizza Party, we were definately best dressed. Who can forget Emily's house that day. Bling Bling, there was a certain football player we had to repay. When on the bus, you'll always see us dance. Cappy does the microwave, Smalls, show seamus your pants. The whole season now seems like a blur. Chumps breakin a slump is exactly what we were. We won the Cape Ann League by beating NA! We proved to everyone that we DFA! We went to the North Final for our last hurrah. This season was amazing, KICKSSA KICKSSA KICKSSA!

FOOTBALL

The boys football team beat the team that went to the super bowl. Then they lost a few players. The season and the championship was theirs, it just slipped through their fingers.

FIELD HOCKEY

The rock-hard ball flies down the field, stopping only when it reaches the back of the net. Their sticks swing with the speed of light. Maybe it was running the hundreds of suicides, coach Heath's Tab addiction, or the team sleepover. Whatever the reason, the field hockey team earned one of their best seasons ever. The girls gained their first CAL championship in sixteen years and continued on to states. Great Job Girls!

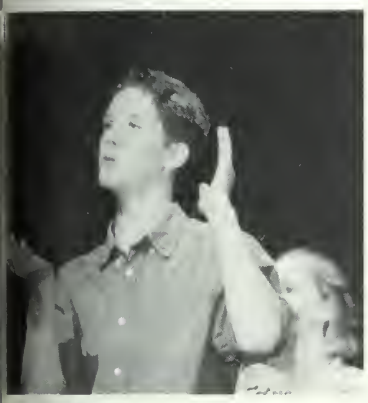
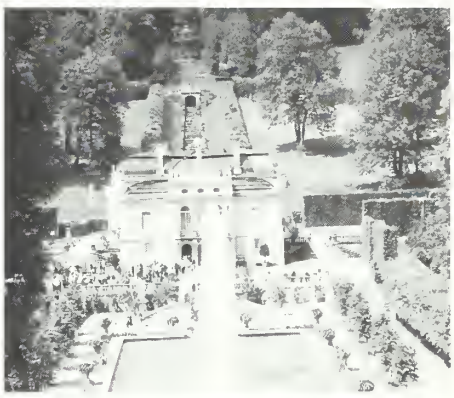
Proposal



Once On This Islan

We left for Munich, Germany the day after school let out in 2000 and didn't return for 25 days! We saw castles, quaint German villages and even the BMW plant all while perfecting our German and immersing ourselves in



"Darf ich ein Mass Helles haben?"

Our French students arrived this Fall. We had fun showed them America and created friendships we will never forget. We can't wait until the Spring when we will make our way to France.

"un sandwich à fromage sans fromage s'il vous plaît

This was the second year of the Spanish Exchange trip between Masconomet and Ondarroa. We had an amazing time and formed great friendship we will never forget. During their stay we celebrated Kattalin's Birthday, laughed at crazy G-whale and even took them to the Topsfield fair. In March we will make our way to the Basque Country.

Junior year,
finally an upperclassmen, and it was your
"most important" year.
You heard that this year will be stressful and you were hoping to get through it quickly.
Sure enough,
you were so busy with your work
that you hardly heard the bell when it rang at 12:02 for lunch.
Before you knew it,
you were playing Powderpuff football, getting your license,
going to the junior banquet,
and taking the SAT's.
Now, summer's just around the corner and you will soon
be seniors.
Don't rush it.
Have fun
and make lots of memories.
Time flies.

Sophomore year and you finally figured out how much time is needed to get ready in the morning.
You hoped this was the last year
you would ever have to stand outside and wait for the bus, which never came on time.
Time between classes seemed to fly by even faster than it did the year before because you knew more people and were trying to socialize
with the upperclassmen.
The initial excitement of freshman year had worn off though, as you glanced at the clock and realized it was only 10:20.
After school,
you quickly went out to the parking lot to try and save time
by getting a ride from someone because you hated
having to ride the bus.
Plus, you could have caught a ride from a cute
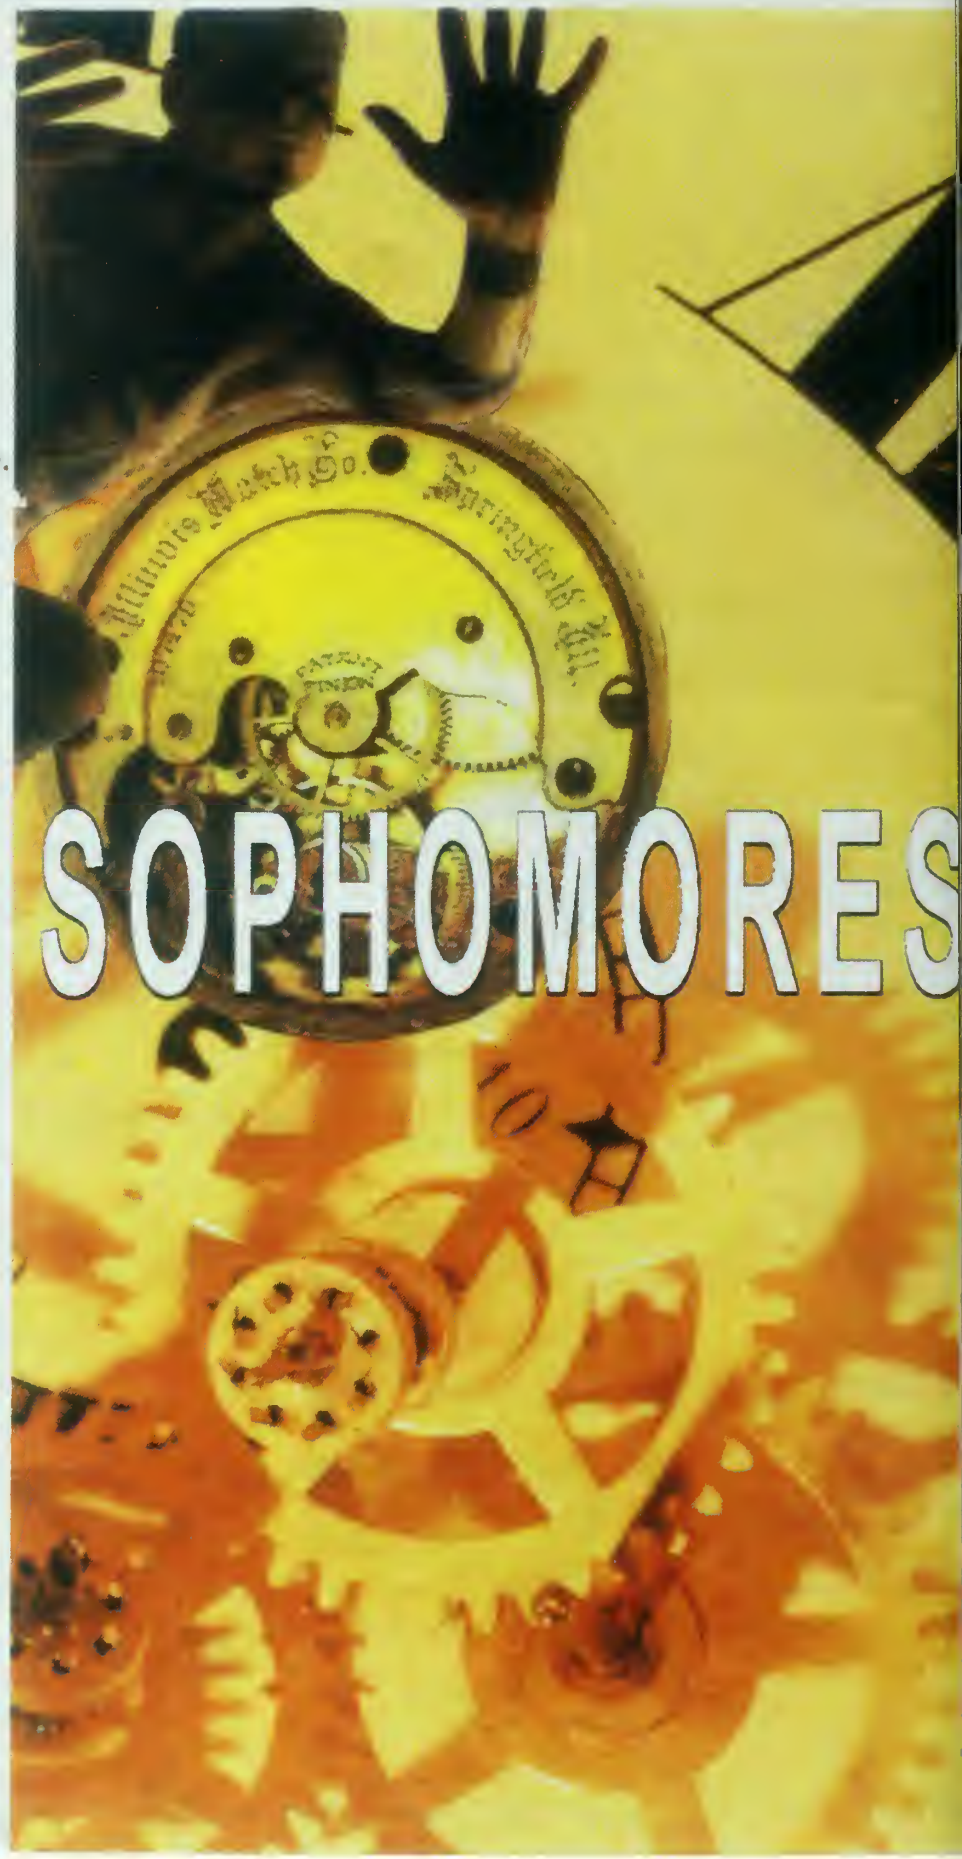
senior guy or girl.
Two years down,
and only two more
to go.
Time flies.



What's your opinion of high school so far?

"It's cool because I can see all the boomin' hunnies." -Dave Randall

"OK... What else can I say? It's school, you tell me."

"It's phat."

Why do you wear tank tops in the winter?! Don't you get cold?!

"I don't. It's not appropriate."

"It's a fashion statement and the weather shouldn't interrupt that."

"We look hot, no we don't get cold."

How does Serino always have so much energy?

"I don't have him, but I think it has to do with the water."

"He has so much energy because he loves us, and he looks forward to being with us."

"He eats power bars."

"I've wondered about that myself."

"He plays soccer and has THE JUICE!"

"Because he's obsessed with self-esteem, his role model is Mr. O'neill on DARIA."

What most excites you about the new building?

"It's geometric shape."

"Cleaner, nicer surroundings."

- Jackie Michalek

"It almost killed us."

Freshmen Survey

"Where is the D-Wing?"

"Is there one?"

"ahhhhhhhhh....???"

What do you do on the weekends?

"I ride my dirt bike and maintain it, but right now I'm rebuilding a boat engine."

"I chill"

"I sleep and stuff"

If your class had a motto, what would it be?

"We are preps with too much money"

"Hit dirt, shake tree, split sky, part sea, strip smile, lose cool, bleed the day, break the rule, COME CARPE DIEM BABY!!!!!!" -Dave Randall

"Go hard, or go home"

What do you think of the upperclassmen?"

"eh.....they're kinda tall, and big and ....upper."

"I love Danny Archung!!"

"Some of them are wierd and scary."

"Two roads diverged in a wood and I--I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference." ~Robert Frost

"Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail." ~Ralph Waldo Emerson

"There are no shortcuts to any place worth going." ~Anon

Freshman year and the clock ticked by. Although unaware of the sound of the ticking, your mind swirled with dreams of the future and the exciting year that laid ahead. DIIIINNNNGGGG!!!! The alarm clock jolted you from the dream. Instead of hitting the snooze button and sleeping for another ten minutes, you jumped out of bed full of excitement. It was your first day of highschool. You went into homeroom precisely at 7:30 and received your schedule, just to realize that you didn't have a clue where any of the classrooms were. You were worried about not having enough time to get to class as you sprint through the hallways with your full backpack swinging from side to side. Soon enough, you were done for the day. After a few similar days, you had the routine down and even had enough time after your homework to catch the end of Dawson's Creek. Your freshman year is now over, and although you're still an underclassman, you are moving up in the ranks. You've started to learn the ropes of being a highschooler, yet you still have much to learn. This is the beginning. Three years to go. Don't worry, time flies.

Where were you 20 years ago?

It's 6:30am.
While the students are just starting to wake up,
most of the faculty have already gotten in their cars ready to make the long trip to school.
As you weave in and out of the morning traffic, you glance at the clock to make sure you will get to school
on time.
It's a very familiar trip for most, seeing as you've been teaching here for what seems like forever.
You've seen class after class of eager freshmen fly through their four years at Masco and wonder where all the time went.
Time flies.

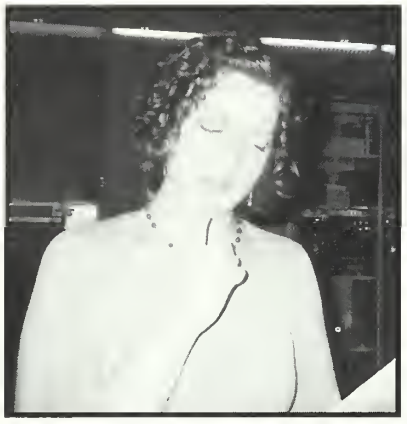
Dedication

Ms. Pearsall



Every year we take a step back and shine a new light on one of our teachers. This person is singled out and honored in a special place, set aside just for them. This year, as time ticks down towards our graduation, we would like to honor Ms. Pearsall.

Standing as a pillar for the art department while juggling the roles of business director, artist, advisor, and friend, she has emerged for our class as more than just another art teacher. She represents the peak of creativity, bringing excitement and a bright and friendly attitude to her classroom as well as the hallways of Masconomet.

Despite her constant running around, she will never hesitate to stop in her tracks to help a straying student. Entering her classroom, you are not only introduced to "Henrietta" and "Rampsterpuss," you are also encouraged to pursue your own artistic and creative talents.

Her laughter and her love of art is contagious, sprinkled with bits of memories and nostalgia of art and bizzare past experiences. From her choice of clothing to her clown dog on her door inviting you to come in, she's always been a unique but amazing part of Masconomet. So to you, Ms. Pearsall, we dedicate this book, our legacy is yours.
